WISCONSIN DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

A Proclamation

Whereas school counselors are employed in schools to help students reach their full potential; and

Whereas school counselors are actively committed to helping students explore their abilities, strengths, interests, and talents as these traits relate to career awareness and development; and

Whereas school counselors work with teachers and other educators to help students explore their potential and set realistic goals for themselves; and

Whereas school counselors help parents focus on ways to further the educational, personal and social growth of their children; and

Whereas school counselors seek to identify and utilize community resources that can enhance and complement comprehensive school counseling programs and help students become productive members of society; and

Whereas comprehensive developmental school counseling programs are considered an integral part of the educational process that enables all students to achieve success in school;

Therefore, be it resolved that February 2-6, 2015, be declared National School Counseling Week, a time to support, recognize, and thank the school counselors supporting Wisconsin students.
