Subject: National School Lunch Week – October 12-16, 2015

I am pleased to present the enclosed proclamation recognizing October 12-16, 2015, as National School Lunch Week. The proclamation recognizes the significant contributions of school nutrition staff and the importance of a nutritious, well-balanced school lunch to the health, well-being, and education of children.

The proclamation, available in English and Spanish, may be used in conjunction with other activities to promote National School Lunch Week and may be accessed on the Department of Public Instruction website at http://dpi.wi.gov/school-nutrition/national-school-lunch-program. You may also visit the School Nutrition Association's website at http://www.schoolnutrition.org/NSLW/ to learn more about how to celebrate.
