

Money Smart Workshop

Money Talks: Speaking to Students About Everyday Econ & Personal Finance

Presented by:

EconomicsWisconsin

The Wisconsin Council on Economic Education

Celebrate Money Smart Wisconsin in Lake Geneva!

Money Talks is a one day conference on teaching personal finance & economics for 6th through 12th grade teachers. Among those presenting are college professors with expertise in personal finance and economics education.

Friday, October 21, 2011
Geneva National Golf Club | Lake Geneva

8:30 to 3:30 | Geneva National Golf Club
Cost: $25.00 (Includes Lunch) | Registration Deadline: Oct. 14th
To Register & for more information:
www.EconomicsWisconsin.org/LakeGeneva.html

Presentations include:

The Economic Way of Thinking

What Caused the Great Recession of 2007-2009?

The Top Ten Industries for Job Growth in the U.S.

Best Practices

2010 Census Data and The Plight of the Housing Recovery: Construction Workers, Banks and Government Sponsored Enterprises

To view presentation descriptions or to register, please visit: www.EconomicsWisconsin.org/LakeGeneva.html

Sponsored by:

Like us on Facebook for status updates and exclusive promotions!