Good afternoon, District Assessment Coordinators – Please see below and attached the important information sent today to district administrators.

From: Thompson, Michael DPI
Subject: Accountability Update

Dear Colleagues:

Today, the Governor signed SB 67, also known as “the pause bill.” With that and the end of the school year in mind, we want to share with you key points about the bill as it relates to school and district accountability and Educator Effectiveness (EE) for 2014-15. The attached document summarizes five things you need to know about these issues for the 2014-15 school year. The summary can be used throughout the district; we encourage you to share widely with both principals and teachers. You may also consider adapting this summary to be shared with parents.

If you have any questions, comments, or suggestions, please feel free to contact Laura Pinsonneault, director of the Office of Educational Accountability: laura.pinsonneault@dpi.wi.gov, or 608-266-1647.

Sincerely,

Mike Thompson, PhD
