

Build Your Local Digital Learning Program with the collaboration of the WDLC

Local Control

Collaboration

200+ Online Courses

Professional Learning

Digital Tools

Digital Content

Digital learning tools, resources, and systems assisting Wisconsin educators with their efforts of preparing youth who are college-and career-ready.

Learn more at:

<http://dpi.wi.gov/imt/digital-learning/collaborative>

Follow us:

Wisconsin's Leader for Online and Digital Learning

"Wisconsin Digital Learning Collaborative offers a wide variety of online and blended learning opportunities in which students can enroll and receive credit, all through the local district."

- State Superintendent, Tony Evers

Which pathway best describes your needs?

Supplemental

Early online, blended, or hybrid program investigation

Supplemental online courses, with option to use local teachers

Affiliate

Calculated adoption of digital learning (online, blended, hybrid)

Digital learning using local staff to serve local students

Invested

Large scale adoption of digital learning (online, blended, hybrid)

Digital learning using local staff to serve local students

No matter which pathway you are on Wisconsin Digital Learning Collaborative can help!

WDLC at a glance:

You can move from one pathway to another without significant disruption. WDLC will offer training and guidance throughout the process.

WDLC serves as operational experts, each partner serves as the academic and instructional expert.

Integrated access to multiple curriculum vendors in one login

Flexibility (use a local instructor or have access to WI licensed instructors or both)

Grades 6 - 12

Financial Savings

Standard Aligned Digital Content

Efficiency = leverage proven WDLC operational expertise

Blended, Online, Flipped, and other Learning Models

Collaboration with WI educators focused on digital innovation

Technical Support

Use online courses, build your own, or a little of both

Planning Support

Vendor Management (one less thing to worry about)