Electronic Student Academic Report (E-SAR) Now Available

As discussed at the Director's Meeting on April 13, Wisconsin MEP now offers a streamlined, electronic way to report student progress. To set up the new process, contact Tena Torgerson at 608-266-9629 or tena.torgerson@dpi.wi.gov.

New Resource for Families

The National Association for Gifted Children (NAGC) is offering a new resource for Spanish-speaking parents. The "Helping Your Gifted Child Succeed" brochure intends to give parents information on identifying high ability children, available programming and ways parents can support their gifted child. NAGC seeks to reach out to diverse populations including Spanish-speaking and Latino families.
