COMMENTS

WI does not collect data by "multiple disabilities"

The department provided statewide training throughout the Fall of 2004 on determining the appropriate environment in preparation for the December 1, 2004 count. It was lear learned that some districts were reporting environment based on the percent of special education received rather than the percent of time outside the regular class. Based on the training provided, districts began to reexamine the settings in which students were placed and made appropriate changes in reporting
