

Proclamation

Whereas Future Business Leaders of America-Phi Beta Lambda (FBLA-PBL) is a nonprofit education association representing the largest business career student organization in the world, with a quarter-million students preparing for careers in business and business-related fields; and

Whereas FBLA-PBL functions as an integral part of the instructional program of the business education curriculum in secondary schools to help students develop skills and knowledge necessary for college and career success through career and technical education, which fosters productivity in business and industry contributing to our leadership in the national and international marketplace; and

Whereas FBLA-PBL members, advisers, state officers, alumni, and sponsors be commended for their dedication to developing leaders for the future by preparing students to become community-minded business leaders in a global society through relevant career preparation and leadership experiences; and

Whereas FBLA-PBL's theme of World of Opportunities for the 2019-2020 school year celebrates the integral role this career and technical student organization provides to middle level, high school, and collegiate members, the opportunities for members to embrace the motto Service, Education, and Progress in their daily lives by making connections between school and careers while understanding the realities of the contemporary business world;

Therefore, be it resolved that I, Carolyn Stanford Taylor, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, declare the week of February 2-8, 2020, FBLA Week in the state of Wisconsin.

FBLA Week

World of Opportunities

February 2-8, 2020

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Carolyn S. Taylor". The signature is written in a cursive style.

Carolyn Stanford Taylor, State Superintendent