INTRODUCTION

During 2004-2005, the Evaluation Committee met to design an evaluation tool with a focus on professional growth and improved learning. The committee reviewed the existing evaluation model, Charlotte Danielson's Framework for Teaching, Wisconsin Standards (Teacher, Pupil Services and Administrators), supervision and evaluation practices from other districts, and developed this system.

We thank the following committee members for their future-focused work to support quality work performance and the continual improvement of teaching and learning in the River Falls School District:

Gary Campbell, Middle School School Counselor
Rick Cleary, Westside Elementary Special Education Teacher
Greg Danke, Middle School Principal
Kim Englund, Westside Elementary Sage Teacher
Brad Farrier, Director of Academic Services
Kate Fuller, Rocky Branch Elementary Directed Play Teacher
Donna Hill, Director, of Personnel (Chair)
Cliff Johnson, Rocky Branch Special Education Teacher
Mike Johnson, High School Assistant Principal, Academics
Morena Kelly, Greenwood Elementary Title Teacher
Jenny Luedtke, Middle School Social Studies Teacher
Tara Martini, High School English Teacher
Carole Mottaz, Renaissance Academy Teacher/Coordinator
Larry Westrum, Westside Elementary Principal
John Witt, Middle School Math Teacher

PURPOSE

The River Falls School District is dedicated to the improvement of student learning. We believe that the evaluation of educators should be a dynamic, career long process. High quality teaching through the use of best professional practices is the most effective way to maximize the learning of each student. Implementation of best professional practices requires continual teacher growth, learning, and targeted change. Successful teachers communicate their passion for learning to their students, colleagues, parents and community partners. The beneficiaries are our students who receive current, state of the art instruction taught by caring, thoughtful, reflective practitioners. They are also the educators themselves who enjoy the constructive honing of their skills.

There are four primary objectives an evaluation tool or process should accomplish. They include:

1. improving instruction,
2. promoting professional growth,
3. ensuring accountability, and
4. assisting in employment decisions.

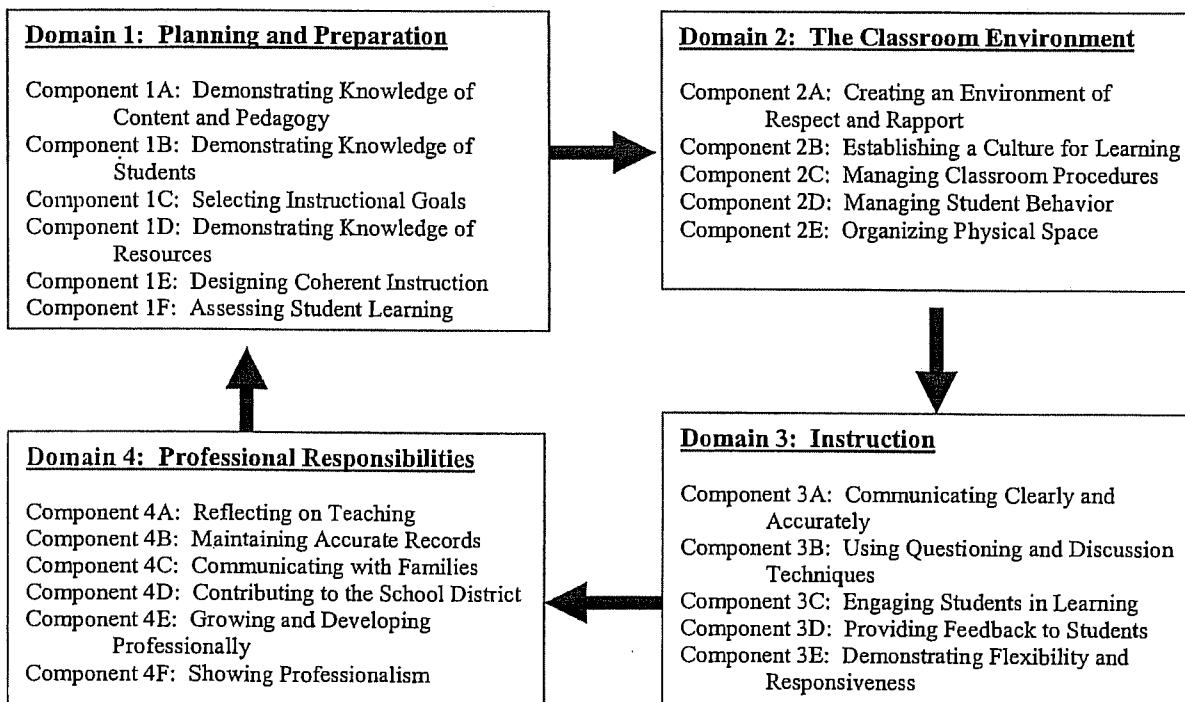

With these objectives in mind, a process has been developed which incorporates these components. The Charlotte Danielson model has been aligned with the 10 Wisconsin Teaching Standards and a format has been created that focuses on four areas or domains. These domains include the following:

1. planning and preparation,
2. classroom environment,
3. instruction, and
4. professional responsibilities.

Wisconsin Teacher Standards	Danielson's Framework Components
1. Teachers know the subjects they are teaching. The teacher understands the central concepts, tools of inquiry, and structures of the disciplines she or the teacher and can create learning experiences that make aspects of subject matter meaningful for pupils	(1a) Demonstrates knowledge of content & pedagogy (1c) Selecting instructional goals (1c) Designs coherent instruction (3c) Engages students in learning
2. Teachers know how children grow. The teacher understands how children with broad ranges of ability learn and provides instruction that supports their intellectual, social, and person development.	(1b) Demonstrates knowledge of students (1c) Selects instructional goals (1f) Assesses student learning (3b) Uses Questioning and discussion techniques (3c) Engages student in learning

YEARLY PROFESSIONAL GROWTH PLAN GOALS

Teacher _____ Building _____ Date _____

By October 1, develop one or two professional goal(s) that align with components of the evaluation framework and identify teaching standards to be addressed. Plan strategies to achieve and assess success for the school year. Keep one copy and return one to your building principal (by October 1) who will review and discuss the plan with you at the end of the school year.

	Wisconsin Teaching Standard Number	Domain and Component
Professional or Instructional Goals

Strategies to Achieve Goals

Assessment Procedures

Reflections

Alternative Options for Teachers Not Scheduled for Formal Observation

Example: Off-cycle years 5 & 6, 8 & 9, etc.

1. Videotape and Analysis of Instruction
 - Plan and develop a lesson that you would like to videotape and analyze
 - Videotape the lessons
 - Complete a written analysis of the lessons
 - Have colleague analyze your videotape (optional)
 - Give video and written analysis to principal for feedback/conference
2. Action Research
 - Teacher may work alone or with group
 - Select an area/topic of educational interest to study (may be from building or district goals, individual goals, building issues/concerns, etc.)
 - Analyze the implications of the topic for your classroom, school and/or district; identify resources needed and establish timeline
 - Collect data over time
 - Share study by completing a written analysis and submit to principal for feedback/conference
3. Teacher Portfolio/Electronic Portfolio
 - Create a baseline description of current practice on selected teaching standard(s)
 - A successful portfolio will include documentation of:
 - a. Efforts – the teacher’s attempts to improve practice (i.e. the portfolio may include a unit the teacher wrote including drafts to show the stages of development)
 - b. Progress – the portfolio should include some convincing evidence that the teacher has grown in the targeted area/skill
 - c. Reflection – the portfolio should include a written analysis of “so what?” and “now what?” pertaining to the documentation provided
 - Portfolio may be shared in a session with your colleagues
 - Portfolio will be submitted to the principal for review and feedback/conference
