

Sample Student and Program Outcomes School Social Work

Attendance & Student Engagement

- By the end of the school year, at least ___% of targeted students will reduce their unexcused absences by ___% or more compared to the previous school year.
- At least ___% of students who are identified as homeless during the school year will be enrolled in school within two weeks of initial contact with the school.
- At least ___% of school age parents will successfully complete at least ___% of their respective individual learning plans during the school year.

Behavior Management, Discipline & School Climate

- At least ___% of targeted students will be able to articulate and demonstrate at least three anger management strategies.
- At least ___% of targeted students will receive at least ___% fewer office disciplinary referrals compared to the previous school year.
- A minimum of ___% of students will report satisfaction with the school's climate on one or more established school climate surveys.

Crisis

- At least ___% of encountered crises will be immediately and successfully managed during the school year, as determined by involved people maintaining safety.

Disabilities

- At least ___% of students with school social work services will successfully complete at least ___% of the related services goals in their respective IEPs by the end of the school year.

Family Engagement

- At least ___% of families with basic human needs (food, shelter, clothing, health care) will be successfully connected to appropriate community services, as demonstrated by successful enrollment.
- At least ___% of targeted families will demonstrate increased involvement in school through one or more means (e.g., attendance at parent teacher conferences, signing and returning homework tracking sheets, etc.).
- At least ___% of parents in targeted families will report improved relationships with their children as measured by _____.

Interpersonal Violence

- At least ___% of school employees attending child abuse reporting training will be able to articulate how to make a report for suspected child maltreatment.
- At least ___% of targeted students will demonstrate at least a ___% reduction in bullying behaviors by the end of the school year as measured by _____.
- At least ___% of targeted students will report successful implementation of their respective safety plan for the entire school year.
- At least ___% of students in the school will report a reduction in bullying behaviors on one or more established student surveys.

Mental Health

- At least ___% of targeted students and families will experience successful referrals to community mental health services, as demonstrated by attendance at a minimum of one visit.
- At least ___% of students experiencing challenges to their mental health will report a ___% increase in positive mental health days by the end of the school year.
- At least ___% of students experiencing challenges to their mental health will be able to articulate and demonstrate at least three strategies to effectively manage their symptoms.

Unhealthy Risk-Taking Behaviors

- At least ___% of students returning to school from treatment will successfully attain credit in all classes.
- At least ___% of students involved in use of alcohol or other substances will reduce their use by ___% by the end of the school year as measured by _____.

Inter-agency Collaboration

- A formal interagency agreement will be developed and signed by officials representing the school district and _____ (agency) establishing each organization's responsibilities to serve children and families they have in common.