Individualized Learning Plan Resource Guide

In 2008, the U.S. Department of Labor’s Office of Disability Employment Policy (ODEP) commissioned the National Collaborative on Workforce and Disability for Youth (NCWD/Youth) to begin a multi-year, multi-method investigation into the nature and promise of Individualized or Personalized Learning Plans (ILPs). Beginning with 14 schools in four states (LA, NM, SC, and WA) this research began by conducting focus groups, surveys, and interviews with educators, parents, and students about their experiences in using ILPs. The ILP research continues and more recent investigations have included a 50-state analysis of ILP legislative policies and interviews with state and district officials regarding the trends and challenges of implementing ILPs. ODEP sponsored ILP resources can be found at www.ncwd-youth.info/ilp and http://www.dol.gov/odep/ilp/map/.

This ILP Resource Guide is divided into the following sections: (a) Communication resources for introducing the nature and value of ILPs to a range of stakeholders; (b) resources to support districts and school level ILP implementation; (c) resources to support state leaders in designing large-scale ILP implementation; (d) other resources to support career development communication and implementation efforts.

About the NCWD/Youth. NCWD/Youth assists state and local workforce development systems to better serve all youth, including youth with disabilities and other disconnected youth. The NCWD/Youth, created in 2001, is composed of partners with expertise in education, youth development, disability, employment, workforce development and family issues. Funded by the U.S. Department of Labor’s Office of Disability Employment Policy (ODEP), the NCWD/Youth is housed at the Institute for Educational Leadership’s Center for Workforce Development in Washington, D.C. NCWD/Youth offers a range of technical assistance services to state and local workforce investment boards, youth councils and other workforce development system youth programs. NCWD/Youth partners with a range of organizations in conducting its technical assistance and outreach efforts. These organizations include Boston University’s School of Education, Institute for Community Inclusion at the University of Minnesota, the National Association of Workforce Development Professionals, and the PACER Center. The technical assistance and ILP research is built around core features included in the Guideposts for Success (http://www.ncwd-youth.info/guideposts), a national framework for guiding the design of transition and college and career readiness programs and activities for all youth.
