Subject: New Logistical Manual for the Implementation of Online Assessments in Wisconsin Available

District Assessment Coordinators:

The Office of Student Assessment (OSA) is committed in its effort to assist districts and schools with the new Wisconsin assessments and has released a new publication. The Logistical Manual for the Implementation of Online Assessments in Wisconsin was developed to help schools effectively implement online assessments. This is a guide for consideration of resources, staffing, scheduling, and various other issues that will arise in implementing the new assessments. This guide is available at <http://oea.dpi.wi.gov/assessment/resources>.
