

Cheryl Kothe

Business, Marketing, and Information Technology
State Superintendent Advisory Council

CTE Coordinator for Kenosha Unified School District

“I have been involved with business, marketing, & information technology education for over thirty years. I fell in love with my business courses in high school and wanted to continue to learn more. There is nothing more important for us in education to support and promote these outstanding programs for our students so they can get the connections to business and industry.”

