

Michol Banes

Business, Marketing, and Information Technology
State Superintendent Advisory Council

Senior Marketing Manager at Baker Tilly, Past President of the American Marketing Association - Madison

“One of the main factors in our ability to be strategic and think holistically, is the foundation of education given during a marketing degree and continuing education. Continuing to improve the education our next generation of professionals receive is needed to keep moving forward.”

