

Patty Hendrickson

Business, Marketing, and Information Technology
State Superintendent Advisory Council

President and Owner of Hendrickson Leadership Group, Inc.

“Business, marketing & information technology education is the gateway to successfully function in a perpetually changing world. Watching students participate and continue expanding their skills makes me hopeful for their ability to position themselves to be lifelong learners and successful citizens, building a community where everyone can succeed.”

