Reporting Youth Apprenticeship

In order to report Youth Apprenticeship, it MUST:

- involve sustained interactions (at least 90 hours), either paid or unpaid, with industry or community professionals.
- take place in real workplace settings as practicable or simulated environments at an educational institution.
- foster in-depth, firsthand engagement with the tasks required in a given career.
- align with a course (minimum one semester).
- include a training agreement between the student, employer/business, and school defines the roles and responsibilities of the student, the employer, and the school.
- include regular, periodic oversight and interactions with employers or community members from the industry related to the assigned work.
