

College Internship Scholarship Program

Due: January 30, 2016

Overview

Wisconsin DECA has established a college internship program to serve as a Series Director Assistant at the State Career Development Conference. The purpose of the program is to provide a leadership learning experience for future marketing educators. Selection will be based on the established criteria and the applicant's availability for two days during the operation of competitive events. Ten applicants will be awarded a scholarship of $200 and free conference registration. The scholarship is intended to cover meals, lodging, and transportation. You will be assigned to work with a Director who will provide you with specific duties and responsibilities.

*Note that there are many other non-scholarship positions available at the conference as a judge or adult assistant.

Selection Criteria

1. Enrolled at the University of Wisconsin Stout or Whitewater in the Marketing Education preparation program. Cannot be currently serving as a student teacher.
2. Attended a minimum of one State Level High School Career Development Conference as a college student, and served either as an assistant or judge.
3. Will be present for all conference activities that include:
  - Sunday, March 8 (Conference Set up 5pm-10pm)
  - Monday, March 9 (Conference Set up and general assistance 9am-11pm)
  - Tuesday, March 10 (Registration and general assistance 8am-11pm)
  - Wednesday, March 11 (General assistance, conference pack up 6:30am-11pm)
  - Thursday, March 12 (Closing session awards assistance 7am-11am)
4. Content and completeness of application along with neatness will be used in the selection.
5. Submit a complete application by January 30, 2016. References required.
