REPORT ON THE STATUS OF BILINGUAL-BICULTURAL EDUCATION PROGRAMS IN WISCONSIN SUBCHAPTER VII of CHAPTER 115, WISCONSIN STATUTES, SCHOOL YEAR 2009-2010

Background

Under Section 115.996, Wisconsin Statutes, the state superintendent is required to report to the legislature on the status of bilingual-bicultural education programs funded under this authority. This report provides the specific information required by law for the 2009-2010 school year (paid during FY 2011).

Wisconsin school district personnel view Chapter 115, Subchapter VII, Wisconsin Statutes, as very important. It provides partial but critical funding for student populations whose language education needs must be served. The department's federally funded (Title III, No Child Left Behind) bilingual/English as a second language (ESL) education program staff provided extensive technical assistance, disseminated materials statewide, provided regional staff development activities, and conducted training for local bilingual/ESL program administrators and teachers.

The number of limited-English proficient (LEP) pupils continues to grow in Wisconsin (of 425 districts in the 2009-10 school year, 361 or about 85% of all districts enrolled at least one LEP pupil). The number of districts enrolling LEP pupils also continues to grow, though many of these districts do not meet the statutory threshold to be eligible for state aids. The number of aided districts has also grown, as well as the cost of serving LEP pupils, resulting in a diminishing per pupil rate of reimbursement annually as available funding is spread over a growing population.

The state superintendent has requested increases in the bilingual-bicultural aid as part of the department's biennial budget request for several years. In the 2009-11 biennial budget, the governor reduced the appropriation by 1% and the legislature by 2.5% for an overall reduction of 3.5%. The resulting FY10 appropriation was only sufficient to reimburse 55 districts at a rate of 9.43584%. With the appropriation cut an additional 10% in the 2011-13 biennium, and districts' LEP enrollments and costs increasing, the amount of reimbursement available to districts will continue to fall.

Languages/Program Locations

Statewide, approximately 15% of districts reporting LEP pupils have the language concentration numbers as set forth in state statute from at least one language population, and provide the appropriate staff, to be eligible to receive state bilingual-bicultural categorical aids. Approximately 52% of the English language learners in the state are served in these state reimbursed districts.

The following chart contains demographics from the March 2010 Census of Limited-English Proficient Students, as well as the number of students and the language populations served in bilingual-bicultural program districts during 2009-2010.

Beginning with the 2006 implementation of ACCESS for ELLs™ (Assessing Comprehension and Communication in English State-to-State for English Language Learners), the new English language proficiency (ELP) assessment meeting No Child Left Behind (NCLB) criteria, much of the data are collected via the test booklet and stored in the ISES (Individual Student Enrollment System). The annual census includes counts based on the data by district and by language that are pulled from ACCESS results. Also included are those ELLs who do not have a composite ACCESS score, but have an ELP level in the ISES.

Program Costs for Categorically Aided District Programs

Originally, the appropriation from the state legislature was divided evenly among districts so that each received the same percentage of reimbursement for their approved expenditures. In 1999 Wisconsin Act 9 (the biennial budget), $250,000 was set aside from the bilingual-bicultural appropriation. This set-aside was to be divided proportionally among school districts whose enrollments in the previous school year were at least 15% limited-English proficient students. The remainder of the appropriation was divided evenly among all the districts according to their approved total budgets. This same formula continues through the current fiscal year. Ten districts are eligible for this set-aside.

The chart below illustrates the various levels of spending by the categorically aided districts during the 2009-2010 school year. Program costs vary from district to district due to, but not limited to:

- Number of students served and the impact on cost effectiveness;
- English-language proficiency level of students and range of proficiency levels among students in a classroom;
- Amount of previous schooling of LEP students;
- Staff/student ratio (both teacher/student and bilingual aide/student);
- Amount of instructional contact time;
- Instructional resources provided, e.g., texts, equipment, technology, native language materials/assessments;
- Type of program, such as in-class vs. pull-out programs;
- Cultural differences in learning;
- Degree of parental involvement, which, for LEP students, includes providing a home environment rich in the native language; and,
- Outreach and services to LEP students, immigrant children and youth, or refugee families.

As mentioned above, a key point to remember is that not all districts qualify for state categorical aid, and those that do qualify enroll both eligible LEP students, those who meet the criteria in the statute to generate aids, and non-eligible LEP students, those who do not meet the criteria. The table that follows includes numbers for both "eligible" and "non-eligible" LEP students. The data in the census report do not account for students arriving in districts between the annual census and the following September.

<sup>1</sup> Note: The reimbursement for all districts is determined after the set aside amount ($250,000) is subtracted from the appropriation. The remaining appropriation is divided among the districts based on each district's approved costs. Those districts with LEP enrollments equal to at least 15% of their student enrollment receive a percentage of the set-aside. For the 2009-10 school year, only Beloit, Delavan-Darien, Green Bay, Lake Geneva J1, Madison, Menasha, Sheboygan, Walworth J1, Wausau, and Whitewater qualified.

The department collects data as required by state and federal law. These include data on:

- The numbers of LEP students as identified by Wisconsin districts, and
- The numbers of LEP students served under the bilingual-bicultural statute.

Data are not collected on the numbers of LEP students not served or underserved. For a history of aided and non-aided districts, and the numbers of students identified, please see the chart below.

<sup>2</sup> Data regarding the types of services received, if any, are not collected for "non-eligible" LEP students; most of these students are being served in second language acquisition programs.

<sup>3</sup> As mentioned earlier, this count appears low because it does not include most LEP migrant students or LEP students in PK.

<sup>4</sup> Data collected by "regular" school year and summer school, resulted in some duplication of counts. Because individual student data were not collected, there is no way of determining where duplication exists. In other places on this report, the sum of the two is used. Here, both are used and the "balance" is between the number of LEP/ELL students counted on the census and the number served during the "regular" school year.

Historical Profile: Fully English Proficient Students

The statistics presented below trace the history of bilingual education in Wisconsin from the 1980s to the present, in terms of numbers of students served in programs receiving categorical aid and numbers of students from these programs who became fully English proficient during the school year reported. These students were previously referred to as "exited" students, but now are referred to by the federal term "reclassified." Title III also refers to such students as having "transitioned out of language instruction educational programs into classrooms where instruction is not designed for LEP students." It is important to note that these terms describe only students who are no longer limited-English proficient and therefore no longer require bilingual or ESL program services.

Many factors account for the significant increase in the numbers of LEP students since the inception of the statute, including a steady increase in the Spanish-proficient population, refugee intra-state and inter-state migration, and an increase in the numbers of pre-school programs in the school districts.

Accountability: Current Major Focus – English Language Proficiency Standards and Assessments

Wisconsin, working with the WIDA<sup>5</sup> consortium of states (Alabama, Delaware, Washington DC Public Schools, Georgia, Hawaii, Illinois, Kentucky, Maine, Mississippi, Missouri, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont, Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming), has produced a comprehensive series of English language proficiency standards that meet NCLB requirements and reflect best practice for ELLs. The core standards guide development of English language proficiency (ELP) test specifications and subsequent test item development. ACCESS for ELLs™, the ELP test, was piloted in spring 2004, with field testing in fall 2004, and final roll-out in Wisconsin beginning in December 2005.

The core standards focus on measurable performance objectives and address the four domains of listening, speaking, reading, and writing. They are also linked to academic standards from all the consortium states in English language arts, reading, math, science, and social studies.

The core standards were initially drafted in May 2003. Early in 2004, additional versions of the ELP standards were issued that build upon the foundation of the core standards. These expanded versions are being used in staff development efforts within WIDA states. The expanded ELP standards are arranged for curriculum planners, administrators, and teachers to facilitate their usefulness as planning documents. They will include additional standards or objectives linked to states' standards that may not be amenable to large-scale assessment, such as procedural knowledge and learning strategies objectives.

The WIDA Consortium is currently revising the English language proficiency standards so they align with the CCSSO common core standards. To this end, the consortium has formed a national panel of experts.

<sup>5</sup>“WIDA” was chosen as name for the three original consortium members: Wisconsin, Delaware, and Arkansas. As the consortium continued to grow, WIDA was changed to mean: Worldclass Instructional Design and Assessment.
