

Wisconsin Family, Career and Community Leaders of America Scholarships

Only Graduating Seniors May Apply

Description

To recognize members from affiliated FCCLA chapters who have made significant contributions to FCCLA and Family and Consumer Education at the local, regional, and state levels. To encourage and support members through real world skills in college and career readiness, academic and technical, and CTSO leadership skills.

Criteria For Evaluation

Scholarship applications will be evaluated on the following and should include the application and recommendations from:

- a) member's adviser,
- b) guidance director, principal, or district administrator,
- c) employer, community leader, or minister.

Recommendations will be completed in the fillable form and submitted by an attachment to an email and sent to the state adviser. Hand-written applications and recommendations will not be accepted.

Eligibility

State Level

1. FCCLA members shall show proof by transcript and by a post-secondary-acceptance letter of the following criteria:
 - a) 2.75 grade point average or above,
 - b) acceptance at a technical college or at a four-year college or university.
2. The scholarship categories:
 - a) Career Pathway in Human Services,
 - b) Career Pathway in Hospitality and Tourism,
 - c) Career Pathway in Education and Training
 - d) Career Pathway in Visual Arts and Design, and
 - e) Outstanding Chapter Member in Community Service.
3. Applicants can apply for one or more of the categories.

Rules

1. Complete the FCCLA Scholarship Application Form, write an essay in response to the two-part question, and provide three completed recommendation forms.
 2. It is possible for a student to be considered a candidate in two or the three categories. It is not, however, possible to be a scholarship recipient in two categories.
 3. Send the completed forms to Diane Ryberg, Family and Consumer Education Consultant, Department of Public Instruction to the email address of Diane.Ryberg@dpi.wi.gov
 4. Scholarship awards may be granted in the amount of $250 each.
 5. A committee of FCCLA advisers, university, or state staff persons will review and rank the applications.
 6. The scholarship award will be presented at the State Leadership Conference.
 7. Scholarship winners should send the scholarship donor a thank you letter within five days after the State Leadership Conference. A copy of this letter should be sent to the state adviser for the permanent file. Appropriate names and addresses can be obtained from the state office/state adviser.
 8. Follow-up letters should be sent to the state office at the end of the first semester indicating where and to whom the scholarship award should be sent. A copy of the recipient's college transcript is required.
 9. Funding for the scholarship awards is from the Chapter Leadership Scholarship Fee, WI FCCLA Foundation, and from interested supporting businesses, agencies, and individuals.
