

SUMMER READING

Summer Reading

I wish to offer you a little respite from the spring we experienced. Here are several “good reads” to consider. These ideas come from several of you who shared both professional and children books to include in our list. Thank you for sharing. Enjoy following up on these book ideas for your own reading adventures. Visit the online spreadsheet of initial ideas for books from colleagues across the state. Book covers shared above are only a sample from the list. If you have additional book ideas, please email me. Thank you again for your support of our young musicians, dancers, actors, artists, and artistic technicians, as well as each other.

Virtual Office Sessions

The first week will be a “Watch Party” session focused on a video and discussion. Additional dates in June will feature informal arts educator discussions about arts strategies for 2020-21. You are invited to participate in these fun and engaging sessions. The sessions are scheduled from 12 to 12:45 pm CST. Register for the dates of interest. Please register by 3 pm CST two days prior to the session date in order to be provided with the ZOOM sign in link. If you have any questions, please contact Julie Palkowski.
