

Application Preview for US Senate Youth Program

Due Date: Monday, October 10, 2022

This preview is provided to help you prepare for your application. Please review the questions.

Applications will be accepted through Monday, October 10, 2022, at noon. Application MUST be completed online. While completing the application, you will have the ability to save your application and return at another time. However, remember to click the "Submit Application" button at the end of your application once you are finished. See information for the selection of delegates' timeline for Wisconsin. Note that spelling and grammar are counted in the selection process.

Use the checklist provided at <http://www.dpi.wi.gov/social-studies/senate-youth> to ensure that you have all parts of the application completed before submission. Incomplete applications will be discarded.

No applications will be accepted for the 2023 program after October 10.

Students must obtain a short letter of recommendation from the principal of their school. The letter can be brief and to the point; however, it must include the student's first and last name, the name of the school which the student attends, and the student's rank in class or GPA. It must either be signed by the administrator and scanned to send via e-mail, or it must come directly from the administrator's work e-mail address.

If you are unable to process the application online, contact dpi.ussyp@dpi.wi.gov

Short Essays

Answer the following questions to the best of your ability. Take into account the word limits in your answer. Note that spelling, grammar, and punctuation are taken into account with the assessment of your answers. You may use outside resources to assist you in forming your answer, but be sure to cite the resources you use. Citing resources does not count in your word limit.

In 300 words or less, which social media sources do you use to gather information about politics in the United States? Do you believe those social media websites, when viewed together as a group, offer an accurate portrayal of politics in the U.S.? Why or why not?

In 300 words or less, what issues have the country's youth brought to greater public attention in the last five years? How have these issues been received by politicians, presidential candidates, and the news media?

Long Essay

Write an essay no longer than 750 words addressing the following:

Discuss a policy proposal or cause championed by either one of your two U.S. Senators during the past five years. What resources and capital has the Senator devoted to that issue? Has the Senator's interest and efforts had an impact on that issue? Why or why not?

References must be cited. Citing resources does not count in your word limit. Essays that do not cite resources will not receive more than half credit. Note that spelling and grammar do count in the assessment of the essay.
