

Type 3: Volunteering

Gain participation from all families in children's learning at home and school and from the community-at-large.

Sample Practices

- Conduct an annual survey to identify interests, talents, and availability of volunteers. Disseminate results of survey.
- Recognize contributions of those who volunteered time, talent, and treasure to children's learning.
- Provide a variety of learning-oriented opportunities for students, families, and community members to contribute, at various times and locations.
- Develop a family center to house family resources, meetings, and workspaces.

Challenge

Recruit, train, and engage as volunteers anyone who wants to support children's learning in any way they are able.
