

McKinney-Vento Quiz

- How many homeless students did the School District of Janesville have in 2005?
 - 312
 - 360
 - 274
 - 381
- How many homeless students did the School District of Janesville have in 2013?
 - 416
 - 438
 - 509
 - 554
- Who is considered Homeless under the McKinney-Vento act?
 - Youth who are sharing housing with others due to economic hardship.
 - Youth living in motels, hotels, shelters, youth services centers.
 - Youth awaiting foster care.
 - Migratory families.
 - All of the above.
- School Districts have the responsibility to identify or locate children and youth experiencing homelessness.

TRUE FALSE
- All youth and children that are homeless are eligible to receive free school meals.

TRUE FALSE
- Youth who refuse to live at home are considered homeless.

TRUE FALSE
- All unaccompanied youth and children attending school, no matter their age, should receive assistance in making educational decisions.

TRUE FALSE
- Why don't these teens just live with their families?
- What are the educational rights for unaccompanied youth and children?
- Who is your building's homeless advocate?