

Racine Unified School District Families in Transition Dispute Process

The McKinney-Vento Act has established criteria for families identified as Families in Transition (FIT). In accordance with the Act, the Racine Unified School District (RUSD) has established a process for FIT families to address disputes, in the event that one of the following services as been violated:

I. School Selection/Enrollment

- A. School of Origin: the school the student attended when permanently housed, or
- B. The School in which the child or youth was last enrolled, or
- C. School of Residence: The school in the attendance area in which the student resides.

II. Transportation

- A. Students residing two miles or more from their home school or on a street deemed hazardous by the police department are eligible for transportation.
- B. Walkers are students living within two miles of the school they are attending.
- C. Homeless students who live within the school's busing boundary will receive the same transportation services as other students living within the school's busing boundary.
- D. Homeless students temporarily living outside the school's busing boundary will receive transportation services such as a school bus assignment, or a bus pass to the school of origin, for the duration of homelessness.

III. Lunch/School Fees

- A. Upon enrollment in FIT, students will automatically be enrolled in free and reduced lunch and school related fees will be waived.

Service(s) will be maintained until such time that the dispute is resolved.

The FIT Coordinator shall assist the parent, guardian, or unaccompanied youth with the dispute process as expeditiously as possible after being informed of the parent, guardian, or unaccompanied youth's disagreement with the services being provided to the student. The following procedure will be followed if a parent, guardian or unaccompanied youth indicates there has been a violation in services as outlined by the McKinney- Vento Act:
