NAMI

National Alliance on Mental Illness is a national organization designed to alleviate mental illness and get rid of the stigma that surrounds it. By educating, advocating, and listening, they lead the nation towards their goal, having a healthier understanding of mental illnesses. NAMI educates by distributing information to families and by giving volunteers the resources they need to help those with mental illnesses. They listen by offering a toll-free helpline for support and providing information.

NSMS

National Society of Multiple Sclerosis is a national organization that raises awareness for those who suffer from multiple sclerosis (MS). MS is an unpredictable, often disabling disease of the central nervous system that disrupts the flow of information within the brain, and between the brain and body. Multiple sclerosis is thought to affect more than 2.3 million people worldwide. The National MS Society is working toward a world free of MS. People affected by MS can live their best lives as we stop MS in its tracks, restore what has been lost and end MS forever. Ending multiple sclerosis for good will take all of us, thus why Wisconsin HOSA needs to get involved!
