- All beginning and end times are flexible with two exceptions: We start on time at 9 a.m. and end on time at 3:30 p.m.
- The goal is to allow time for conversation and input from as many participants as possible.
- The round table sessions will run as follows:
 - Participant rotates through three sessions of their choice. Each session will be repeated three times and lasts twenty minutes plus ten minutes discussion time.
 - There will be conversation about each topic and discussion before lunch, but more concluding comments will be possible at the end of the day.
 - Please move on to a different table if your first choice is too full. We have about 70 session participants and therefore need to have about 14 participants at each table.
- We are trying to develop the GEAC into the best possible global education program. This program is built and strengthened by all of us.
- Lunch boxes will be served at noon. There will be time for conversation at that point as well as an opportunity to watch some or all of the lunchtime presentation at the student event next door.
