

Proclamation

Whereas school counselors are employed in public and private schools to help students reach their full potential; and

Whereas school counselors are actively committed to helping students explore their abilities, strengths, interests, and talents as these traits relate to college and career readiness; and

Whereas school counselors help parents focus on ways to further the educational, social, emotional, and personal growth of their children; and

Whereas school counselors work with teachers and other educators to help students explore their potential and set realistic goals for themselves; and

Whereas school counselors seek to identify and utilize community resources that can enhance and compliment comprehensive school counseling programs and help students become productive members of society; and

Whereas comprehensive school counseling programs are considered an integral part of the educational process that enable all students to achieve success in school;

Therefore, be it resolved that I, Carolyn Stanford Taylor, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, declare February 3-7, 2020, National School Counseling Week; a time to support, recognize, and thank the school counselors supporting Wisconsin students.
