Budget, licensing, and federal education law updates on agenda for Rural Council Wednesday

MADISON — State Superintendent Tony Evers will recognize some of the academic, athletic, and co-curricular accomplishments in the New Glarus School District during his opening remarks for the meeting of the State Superintendent's Advisory Council on Rural Schools, Libraries, and Communities Wednesday in the New Glarus High School Library Media Center.

New Glarus District Administrator Jennifer Thayer will open the meeting with a welcome and introductions at 9 a.m. Evers will commend the community for its support of the schools, which includes the referendum that passed in February, noting that it's the partnerships between the schools and community that builds success. At 9:15 a.m., the council will be briefed on the state's biennial budget. An update and discussion on licensing changes will begin at 10:40 a.m.

The luncheon and showcase will feature the New Glarus High School music department with Amy Doefer, band director, and Tim Wurgler, choir director. The council will also have a presentation and tour of the high school. At 12:30 p.m. council members will shift their focus to an update on federal education law, re-authorized last year as the Every Student Succeeds Act. Evers will close the meeting at 2 p.m.
