

WISCONSIN DEPARTMENT OF Public Instruction

Purpose: We are pleased to present this document, designed to assist you in navigating the field of assistive technology. Within this document, you will find valuable resources and information that was highlighted in previous AT Forward Updates. This is a central place where you can begin your search to assist and enhance your understanding and implementation of assistive technologies in your educational settings. This is a living resource that will be added to each month. Your commitment to fostering an inclusive learning environment is commendable, and we hope this document serves as a helpful resource to save you time.
