

RELATED SERVICE PROVIDERS

Community of Practice

Save the dates!

The Community of Practice for Related Service Providers is an online collaboration for occupational therapists, speech-language pathologists, and physical therapists to share best practices relating to the provision of services in schools. This series will be interactive using Zoom Meeting to amplify the voices of all who participate. Collaborative partners of related services providers are welcome to attend. Participants will be introduced to a topic and then break into virtual groups to share resources and hear from each other.
