Who We Serve
The Cooperative Educational Service Agency (CESA) Early Childhood Special Education Program Support Teacher (ECSE PST) provides professional learning for administrators, early childhood special education teachers, regular education teachers, service providers, and other support staff.

Who We Are
The CESA ECSE Program Support Teachers are licensed early childhood special education teachers who serve as liaisons to the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction (DPI). They are funded with the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) Preschool Discretionary grant dollars and are supported by Wisconsin Early Childhood State Coordinators and DPI Consultants.

What We Do
The CESA ECSE PSTs can provide professional learning focused on delivery of special education services for young children with disabilities ages three through five. The intent is to ensure that every child has a teacher with the skills, knowledge, and resources in the following areas:

- State Performance Plan Indicator 6: meaningful inclusive practices
- State Performance Plan Indicator 7: positive outcomes in key areas
- State Performance Plan Indicator 12: timely transition from the Birth to 3 Program
- Screening, eligibility, evaluation, and ongoing assessment
- Developing College and Career Ready Individual Education Programs
- Evidence based practices in the planning and delivery of specially designed instruction
- Intentional planning of curriculum and instruction using early learning standards
- Fostering community collaborations that support young children and their families
