

Holding Space for Ourselves and Our Students: The Inner and Outer Work of Trauma-Responsive Education

Department of Public Instruction (DPI)
Trauma Sensitive Schools Spring Webinar

Monday, April 14, 2025

1:00 – 2:30 p.m.

Please join the DPI and author Arlène Elizabeth Casimir for a webinar that emphasizes both student and educator well-being. Educators will explore self-regulation strategies to build their own resilience, co-regulation techniques to strengthen relationships, and trauma-responsive practices to transform classroom and school culture while protecting themselves from burnout. Educators will leave with an action plan to foster a healing-centered school community where all can flourish, thrive, and grow.

The webinar is free and limited to 500 participants. It will be recorded and available to registered participants through April 28, 2025.
