

Assesment for Buccal Medication Administration

Name: _____

Please circle the correct answer and take the completed test to the school nurse or school district administrator for scoring.

1. When preparing medication for emergency use, remember to:
 - a. Check the medication bottle and order for the right name, right medication, right dosage, right route, and right time
 - b. Place the student on his/her side in case the child should vomit
 - c. Check the child's health care plan to determine when the medication should be given
 - d. All of the above

2. Usually, buccal medications are given in a divided dose—half placed in each side of cheek area (between lip and gum).
 - a. True
 - b. False

3. When administering buccal medications use care not to squirt the medication down into the throat.
 - a. True
 - b. False

4. Document the following in the seizure log:
 - a. The time medication was given
 - b. Your name or initials
 - c. When seizure began
 - d. Time that you or someone else called 911
 - e. All of the above

Number correct: ____ of 4 answers