

REQUIREMENTS FOR DPI APPROVED MEDICATION TRAINING

Route/section	Required principles
General medication principles	Identify responsibilities under state and federal laws and local policies related to medication administration.
	Identify critical hand washing periods and effective procedures.
	Differentiate between the authorized roles of assistive personnel, school nurse, parent, and medical provider.
	Identify the five rights: right student, medication, dose, time and route.
	Understand the need and procedures to maintain confidentiality related to medication administration.
	Understand medical terminology related to medication administration.
	Identify effective documentation of medication administration.
	Define medication errors and need for documentation.
	Understand the skills necessary for students to successfully self-administer medication in the school setting.
Oral medication	Identify proper procedures for oral medication administration.
Eye medication	Identify proper procedures for eye medication administration.
Ear medication	Identify proper procedures for ear medication administration.
Topical medication	Identify proper procedures for topical medication administration.
Inhalant/inhalers	Identify proper procedures for inhalant medication admin.
Rectal Diazepam	Identify proper procedures for rectal diazepam medication administration.
Epinephrine auto injector	Identify proper procedures for epinephrine medication administration.
Glucagon	Identify proper procedures for glucagon medication administration.
Intranasal	Identify proper procedures for intranasal medication administration.
Buccal	Identify proper procedures for buccal medication administration.	