

HIGH RISK SPOTLIGHT LGBT YOUTH

50%

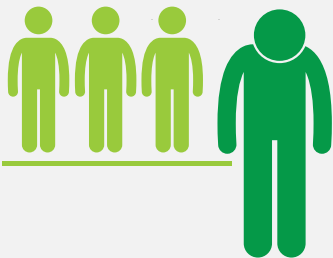

more likely to have been bullied

Bullying

LGBT students are 50% more likely than their peers to have been bullied at school or online in the past year.

Mental Health

LGBT students report higher rates of depression, anxiety, and suicidal ideation. 1 in 2 LGBT students reports depression. They are three times more likely than their peers to have considered suicide.

School Belonging

LGBT students are less likely to feel supported and connected to their school. They are twice as likely as other students to say they don't feel like they belong at their school.

Supportive Adults

LGBT youth are the least likely group to have a supportive adult at school: about 40% say that they do not have even one teacher or other adult at school they can talk to if they have a problem.

