

Public Notice of Open Meetings

Title I Committee of Practitioners Fall 2024 Meeting

Time 8:30 – 11:30 am

Date Tuesday, November 19, 2024

Location Teams Meeting Link
Phone Conference: 608-620-9781, ID# 149 109 475

Purpose The Title I Committee of Practitioners is an advisory group composed of individuals working in Title I programs throughout Wisconsin. The group typically meets three times each school year to get the latest updates, discuss issues, and provide input on Title I-related matters, such as services/supports, statewide projects, plans, and proposed policies. Members include school administrators, teachers, parents, local school board members, private school representatives, and pupil service personnel.

Agenda

- I. Welcome and introductions
- II. History and Purpose of the Title I Committee of Practitioners
- III. Group Norms
- IV. Drafted Technical Assistance regarding US Census Data
- V. ESSA State Plan
- VI. Federal Updates
- VII. Agenda for the next meeting
- VIII. Closing Comments

Further Information Shelly Babler
Title I and School Support Director
608-267-1067, shelly.babler@dpi.wi.gov