Phone Conference ID: 369 654 591

Purpose The Title I Committee of Practitioners is an advisory group composed of individuals working in Title I programs throughout Wisconsin. The group typically meets twice each school year to get the latest updates, discuss issues, and provide input on Title I-related matters, such as services/supports, statewide projects, plans, and proposed policies. Members include school administrators, teachers, parents, local school board members, private school representatives, and pupil service personnel.

Agenda

- I. Welcome and introductions
- II. Review the meeting objectives for the day
- III. Share the new Title I structure at Department of Public Instruction (DPI)
- IV. Develop a purpose and meeting structure to support the work of Local Educational Agencies (LEAs) implementing Title I programs
- V. Share federal updates: provide information regarding grant allocations, application timelines, etc.
- VI. Closing comments
