

Request for Reconsideration

WISELearn Resources is a professional community of contributors who take responsibility for maintaining the quality of the available content. When a request to remove an item in the collection is made, the WISELearn Technical Group and DPI legal staff, as well as experts in the related content area and Intellectual Freedom, will review the information as a Reconsideration Committee in order to address concerns about the resource. Completion of this form is the first step in this process. Please send completed forms to wislearn@dpi.wi.gov.
