Stanford Taylor commends Monroe teacher

MADISON – State Superintendent of Public Instruction Carolyn Stanford Taylor congratulated Sarah Compton for being named a Milken Educator. Compton is a fifth-grade teacher at Northside Elementary in the Monroe School District. She received the award from the Milken Family Foundation at a ceremony in her school today.

“Teachers who can build strong, personal relationships with their students are always successful at knowing how to unlock a child’s fullest potential. Sarah Compton’s efforts to tailor learning through choices and relationships are a model for others to follow. Congratulations to Sarah for this recognition.”
